

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY
HEALTH

AHPA
ADVENTIST HEALTH
POLICY ASSOCIATION

Mark your calendars! February 6 – 7, 2017

Mission: Healing America's Communities

A conference for community health development leaders

Topics include:

- Best practice panels
- Building a culture of health
- Not-for-profit accountability

Agenda and more information to follow.

Confirmed Speakers:

Paul Kuehnert, DNP, RN, FAAN
Assistant Vice President – Program
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Maureen Kersmarki, Director
Community Benefit & Public Policy
Adventist Health Policy Association

Juan Carlos Belliard, PhD, Director
Institute for Community Partnerships
Loma Linda University Health

Who should attend this conference?

Health leaders in the Adventist health systems:

- Adventist Health
- Adventist Health System
- Adventist HealthCare
- Kettering Health Network
- Loma Linda University Health

When does the conference begin and end?

Monday, February 6:

8:30 am: Field trip to SACHS Clinic and San Manuel Gateway College in San Bernardino
11:30 am – 5:00 pm: Program at Centennial Complex

Tuesday, February 7:

8:30 to 5:00 pm: Program at Centennial Complex

Where will the conference be held?

Centennial Complex, 4th floor
Loma Linda University Health
24760 Stewart Street
Loma Linda, California 92350

Questions?

Please contact Christine Salmon at 707-362-7570
or christine.salmon@adventisthealthpolicy.org